

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2526 - SB 3190

February 14, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Increases the maximum administrative fee charged to a juvenile in relation to the provision of court-appointed counsel from $200 to $250. Currently the fee is from $50 to $200. Also provides that the clerk will include, in the monthly report regarding administrative fees for court-appointed counsel, any other information required by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - Not Significant

Assumes some increase in the collection of administrative fees; however, the number of persons paying an additional $50 in fees is not estimated to be significant.
